Product Description

Hot Sale High Quality Products Fireproof Skin Feel Bamboo Charcoal Board

Bamboo Charcoal Skin Feel Wood Veneer is an eco-friendly wall panel made of carbon crystal panels with excellent water, moisture and fire resistance, it is also very durable and low maintenance. The wall panels have a smooth surface and are easy to install on the wall. The size and color can be customized. In addition, it is very eco-friendly and pollution-free due to the use of environmentally friendly materials. Suitable for offices, interiors, schools and hotels, Skin Feeling Bamboo Charcoal Wall Panel is an excellent choice for any interior design project. It is ISO9001 certified and is available in customized sizes and 5/8 mm thickness. Each board is carefully wrapped in a plastic bag upon delivery and then placed in a cardboard box. Each box is filled with cushioning material to ensure the panels arrive safely. The cardboard boxes are then sealed and labeled for shipping. Depending on the size of the order and the customer's preference, the wall panels are shipped by ground, air or sea.
