Product Description

Waterproof And Mildew Proof Flat Wood Grain 1220mm Decorative PVC Wallboard Wall Panels

The wood grain bamboo charcoal wood finish is a true expression of sophistication and eco-friendly engineering. Immerse yourself in the timeless beauty of wood grain, enhanced with advanced features such as water, moisture, fire and eco-friendly materials, ensuring truly exceptional and sustainable interior design solutions. Sophisticated, the Wood Grain Bamboo Charcoal wood veneer faithfully replicates natural wood grain patterns and is capable of adding warmth and character to spaces, creating an ambiance that is both inviting and stunning. Our innovative wood grain veneer is water and moisture resistant, making it ideal for areas prone to moisture or occasional spills. Solves surfaces from water damage and moisture related problems. Safety is paramount in any living space and our wood finishes have fire-resistant qualities. This ensures that the veneer not only enhances the aesthetics of your interior, but also provides an extra layer of protection in the event of a fire.
